

Introduction

From before the beginning of time, God had a plan to save us from our sin. The Bible, taken as a whole, tells us the history of that plan of salvation. We refer to this as “salvation history”: the story of how God’s plan to save us was worked out over thousands of years. But salvation history is different from other kinds of history; it deals not only with the past but also with the future. One good way of looking at salvation history is to see it as a series of covenants between God and us. In the Old Testament, a covenant was an agreement between God and mankind made through individual persons (mediators).

Read: Genesis Chapters 1, 2 & 3

Answer the following questions:

1. How many days did God take to create the universe?
2. Who did God make a covenant with (the mediator)?
3. What was Adam’s job in Eden?
4. What was the one rule that God gave Adam?
5. Where was Adam while Eve was tempted by the serpent?
6. What was the penalty for Adam and Eve’s sin?
7. What was the sign of the agreement between God and the mediator?

Journal Question:

If I had one thing I hope to gain from this confirmation class, what would it be?