Holy Trinity Pro-Life Committee

The Holy Trinity Pro-Life Committee, serving St. Pio and Christ the King Parishes, needs new members to help us build a culture of life in our world today. The Pro-Life Committee stands behind the Church's teaching that all life is sacred from conception to natural death. We try and build awareness and advocacy for life issues and support pro-life organizations in our diocese. For more information, please contact Rosellyn Giampietro, Chairperson, at lateran84@gmail.com.

The Refugee Resettlement Committee Needs Your Help!

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

Have you looked at the price of housing lately? Just imagine the cost of putting a roof over a family of seven! That's the real challenge for the Popal family from Afghanistan, sponsored by the Lyme Old Lyme Refugee Resettlement Committee, which has worked to support this family as it navigates the language, customs and laws in their new home.

The Popals are happy in our community, and would like to stay, especially since the children are thriving in our schools. All of the kids speak English now! Dad has a job driving for a delivery service and Mom picks up occasional sewing work that she can do at home while caring for their 18 month old, Sola, who was born in the United States.

They are here, you may remember because Dad worked with the U.S. military in Afghanistan and his life was at risk after the takeover by the Taliban.

So, we are asking for your help. We are raising funds specifically to help subsidize their family's housing. The cost of rent for a three bedroom home is much greater than they can possibly afford right now. The Popals will continue to pay as much as they can.

All donations are tax deductible and can be made online or by check. Please make a note that your donation is earmarked for the housing fund.

To give online, visit the First Congregational Church of Old Lyme website. Under the "Donate" tab, choose "Another fund" and then "Refugee Resettlement". To donate by mail, make a check payable to First Congregational Church of Old Lyme with Refugee Resettlement in the memo line. Mail to P.O. Box 172, Old Lyme, CT 06371.

Sincerely and with gratitude,

Kathy Kronholm & Cookie Staves, Co-Chairs

Saint John School Charitable Foundation Trust

In this era of rising costs, Catholic education from elementary through university level is often considered an unaffordable luxury. The Saint

John School Charitable Foundation Trust, through its funding of tuition aid, provides support for families whose children otherwise couldn’t benefit from the superior Catholic education offered by Saint John School. Thanks to the generosity of our donors, Saint John School Charitable Foundation Trust currently funds tuition aid for more than 10% of students who attend Saint John School.

If you wish to give a memorial donation or prefer to send a check, including direct payments from IRA distributions, you can mail your check, made payable to Saint John School Charitable Foundation Trust, to Saint John School, Attn: Mother Elaine Moorcroft, 42 Maynard Road, Old Saybrook, CT 06475. For more information, contact SJSOSFOUNDATION@gmail.com.

The Foundation is an independent, stand-alone 501(c)3 not-for-profit charitable foundation, and donations to it are deductible, as allowed under Federal Tax Law. No donation is too small; every dollar counts toward assisting students.

You can help us to provide even more support.

Scan this QR code to give through Saint Pio Parish wesharegiving.org. Click on “Give Now” and in the list of Funds, choose “Saint John School Charitable Foundation Trust” to choose donate either one time or as a recurring monthly donation.
